

Level 3 Certificate

PRINCIPLES OF END-OF-LIFE CARE

The course will help to develop your understanding of end-of-life care; communication, assessment and care planning and person centred approaches during end of life care. The qualification also addresses care during the final hours of life and bereavement care.

This NCFE qualification is designed for anyone who is seeking to increase their knowledge of end-of-life care in a vocational setting. It is also appropriate for those who have already achieved other sector-specific qualifications in the healthcare sector who need to apply their understanding in a palliative care context.

COURSE UNITS INCLUDE
