

TA Pathways

Allow Teaching Assistants
to take control of their development and
maximise their potential

Teaching assistants are an essential resource in the classroom but must be prepared and deployed carefully to help maximise their impact on pupils' learning. For schools and MATs committed to enhancing their teaching assistants' effectiveness, TA Pathways is designed to allow TAs to take control of their development and maximise their potential.

Tailored for Teaching Assistants

Our pathways are designed to address TA's specific roles and challenges and ensure your team meets professional standards.

Highly effective learning

Expert content provides practical skills to boost TAs' skills, confidence and impact.

Flexible and fast

TAs can learn at their convenience on desktop, mobile, or tablet; courses are split into easily accessible bitesize chunks.

Serious value

Our competitive prices ensure value without straining budgets.

University certificated

Our pathways are certificated by the University of Buckingham which has a long history in training teachers and provides TAs with a degree-route into teaching.

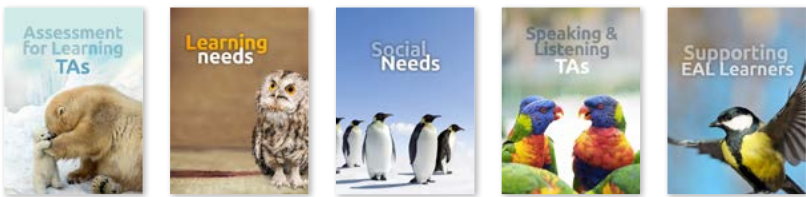

Pathways and courses

Your staff can follow one or more of our 8 tailored learning pathways and earn a University of Buckingham certificate, or build their own pathway from the 65 carefully curated courses for TAs.

Testimonials

“ Such fantastic CPD from Anspear, as always! Our staff have really enjoyed the ownership they have had over their own development ”

Red Oak Primary

“ I wanted a CPD package that was cost-effective and engaged all the support staff of the school. The use of TA pathways has supported our appraisal system and staff have been able to develop at their own pace and according to their own needs and interests. ”

St. Anthony's School

“ Our TAs can be trained in different areas of need concurrently with little training time or cost. ”
